Paid Family Leave Benefits for California Workers

There may be times in the life of a working person when they need to care for a loved one. Whether it's a working parent bonding with a newborn or an employee caring for a seriously ill child, parent, parent-in-law, grandparent, grandchild, sibling, spouse, or registered domestic partner. California's Paid Family Leave (PFL) was created for these times.

A Program Benefiting You and Your Family

California leads the nation as the first state to make it easier for employees to balance the demands of the workplace and family care needs at home. PFL benefits are based on the claimant's (care provider's) past quarterly earnings. For more information regarding maximum benefit amounts paid, read the Disability Insurance (DI) and Paid Family Leave (PFL) Weekly Benefit Amounts in Dollar Increments form, DE 2589, at www.edd.ca.gov/disability.

Paid Family Leave for California Employees

To qualify for PFL benefits, you must meet the following requirements:

- Be covered by State Disability Insurance (SDI) (or a voluntary plan in lieu of SDI) and have earned at least $300 in your base period from which deductions were withheld.
- Supply medical information supporting your claim that the care recipient has a serious health condition and requires your care.
- Submit your claim no earlier than nine days, but no later than 49 days, after the first day your family care leave began.
- Provide documentation to support a claim for bonding with a new biological, adopted, or foster child.
- You may need to use up to two weeks of any earned but unused vacation leave or paid time off, if required by your employer, prior to the initial receipt of benefits.
- Serve a seven-day unpaid waiting period before benefits are paid for each different care recipient within the 12-month period.

You may not be eligible for benefits if:

- You are receiving Disability Insurance, Unemployment Insurance, or workers' compensation benefits.
- You are not working or looking for work at the time you begin your family care leave.
- You are not suffering a loss of wages.
- The need for care is not supported by the certificate of a treating physician/practitioner.
- You are in custody due to conviction of a crime.

You are entitled to:

- Know the reason and basis for decisions affecting your benefits.
- Appeal decisions about your eligibility for benefits. Appeals must be sent to PFL in writing.
- A hearing of your appeal before an Administrative Law Judge. Decisions may be further appealed to the California Unemployment Insurance Appeals Board and the courts.
- Privacy-Information about your claim will be kept confidential except for the purposes allowed by law.

PFL benefits do not provide job protection or return rights. Job protection may be provided if your employer is subject to the federal Family Medical Leave Act and the California Family Rights Act. Notify your employer of the reason for taking leave in a manner consistent with your company's leave policy.

Apply for Benefits

Apply for PFL benefits online at www.edd.ca.gov/disability. Employers and physicians/practitioners can submit claim information through SDI Online. You may also file using a paper form. To request a claim form, visit www.edd.ca.gov/disability.

If you are currently receiving DI pregnancy-related benefits, it is not necessary to request a PFL claim form. Claim filing information will be sent through your SDI Online account or a claim form will be sent via mail when your pregnancy-related disability claim ends.

If you are covered by a Voluntary Plan, contact your employer to obtain information about your coverage and instructions on how to apply for benefits
